Vorwort.

Nach den in der Vorrede zum ersten Bande dargelegten Grundsätzen ist auch der vorliegende zweite Band ausgearbeitet worden.

Was die bei Ausarbeitung dieses zweiten Bandes von mir benützten Werke anbelangt, so müssen vor allen andern genannt werden: Webster, Johnson-Todd, Crabb, Mc Culloch, Ure, Richardson, Jamieson, Pickering, Chalmers und Nares für das Englische; Heinsius, Adelung, Campe und Heyse für das Deutsche. Ferner die Wörterbücher von Hilpert, Ludwig, Boyer und Mozin, das kaufmännische Wörterbuch von Flügel, sowie das bei Whittaker & Comp. in London erschienene deutsch-englische Wörterbuch von Sporschil. Hiermit noch nicht zufrieden, nahm ich aus einer seit Jahren von mir angelegten, sehr umfassenden Excerptensammlung Alles dasjenige auf, was in den Plan des Werkes paßte; denn nur so konnte ich hoffen, alle bedeutenderen Lücken, die sich in vielen der vorhandenen ähnlichen Werke vorfinden, auszufüllen.

So werthvoll indessen die Vorarbeiten waren, die mir zu Gebote standen, so blieb doch für den deutsch-englischen Theil ein weiterer Beistand zu wünschen übrig.

Daher nahm ich auch mit Dank die Mitwirkung eines Mannes an, der, ein geborner Engländer, und als Sprachforscher schon rühmlichst bekannt, vor vielen Andern berufen war, Preface.

THE second volume has been worked out according to the principles laid down in the preface to the first.

The principal Works made use of by me in carrying out the plan of the II. vol. have been the English lexicographers, Webster, Johnson-Todd, Crabb, Mc Culloch, Ure, Richardson, Jamieson, Pickering, Chalmers and Nares; the German Heinsius, Adelung, Campe and Heyse. Besides these, the dictionaries of Hilpert, Ludwig, Boyer and Mozin, the Mercantile dictionary of Flügel, as also the German-English dictionary by Sporschil, edited by Whittaker & Comp., London.

Not yet satisfied, I took out of my very comprehensive "Collection of Excerpts", which I compiled many years ago, all that was needful to complete the plan.

Only in this way could I hope to fill up the more significant deficiencies which are to be found in many of the existing works.

However valuable the aforementioned works at my command were, there was still a further assistance desirable in the German-English part.

Therefore I gratefully accepted the co-operation of one, who, an Englishman, and already wellknown as an illustrious linguist, was applied to, in some cases to hier zu vervollständigen, dort das Veraltete auszuscheiden und durch das bessere Neue zu ersetzen. Dieser Mitarbeiter war Herr R. H. Whitelocke, Professor der englischen Sprache; von ihm sind auch die Buchstaben L und M des zweiten Bandes ursprünglich ausgearbeitet worden.

Ferner bemerke ich noch, daß ich in Allem, was die noch so schwankende englische Orthographie betrifft, dem Amerikaner Webster gefolgt bin. Sein System scheint mir unter allen andern schon deßhalb den Vorzug zu verdienen, weil es bei Weitem das natürlichste und konsequenteste ist.

Endlich sage ich für die vielen anerkennenden und lehrreichen Beurtheilungen, die das Werk bis jetzt gefunden, meinen innigsten Dank. Möge nun auch der zweite Band einen ehrenvollen Platz neben ähnlichen Arbeiten einnehmen!

Der Verfasser.

complete what was wanting, to withdraw the obsolete words, and to improve by introducing better new ones.

This able coadjutor was Mr. R. H. Whitelocke, Professor of the English Language, by whom also the letters L and M in the II. vol. were compiled.

I must further remark, that I have always followed, as regards the ever changing English orthography, the American Webster. His system seemed to me to merit the preference above all others; because it is the most natural and the most conclusive.

Finally I repeat my most hearty thanks for the many appreciative and instructive criticisms which the Work has received up till the present time.

May the II. vol. take an honourable place by the side of similar Works!

The Author.
